

Wearing the bracelet permanently is compulsory.

Charcoal barbecues and candles are prohibited.

Waste-sorting is compulsory.

Respecting other residents

- Silence is compulsory from midnight to 8:00 am.
- Discretion is the rule during the day and evening; in particular, music must not disturb and a group of more than 10 persons on a campsite is prohibited.
- Your car (only one) should be parked on your campsite. Additional cars shall be parked outside the campground. No movement from midnight to 6:00 a.m.
- Children and teenagers are under the responsibility of parents; they should not play in the bathrooms nor wander in the alleys after midnight.
- Your dog should never be alone; it must be kept on the leash and shall do its business outside the campground. It is not allowed in the bathrooms, the swimming pool and playgrounds.
- Your alcoholic drinks should be consumed on your campsite (it is prohibited to walk around with them in the alleys, terraces and other common places).
- Ball games are not allowed in the campground, as well as water displays in the bathrooms and other common places.

Respecting the vegetation

- Clothes lines can only be tied to large trees provided they are short.
- Nothing must be placed, leaned or tied to the hedges: bikes, ropes, trash cans, dog...
- No water (clean or dirty) should be thrown under the hedges and trees
- Heating devices (barbecue, hot plate, suspended lamp...) should be kept away from the plants.

Swimming pool

It is reserved for residents.

Swim suit, bathing trunks or shorts are compulsory. Sun-tanning products are prohibited.

Your guests and visitors

- They will be maximum 4 (animal and vehicle, unauthorized inside) and their entry will be done during the opening hours of receipt.
- They need s to pay a royalty (fee at the reception) will be the responsibility of their hosts and does not have access to the pool. This visit will be limited to a few hours and will end at 23 pm at the latest.

Failure to respect the rules and regulations may result in expulsion from the campground without formal notice.